

Call for Poster Abstracts

The Nebraska Nurses Association is seeking poster abstracts from Nebraska nurses and student nurses for their 2023 NNA Annual Convention in Lincoln on October 6 and 7, 2023. This is an opportunity for you to showcase your research, evidence-based practice or quality improvement to nurses from across the state participating in the event. Topics pertaining to clinical practice, patient education, or current trends in nursing/healthcare are encouraged. Both specialty and general nursing topics will be considered. Poster author(s) must have a current nursing license in the United States.

Accepted abstracts will be featured as poster presentations and the author(s) will be present at Convention for questions/feedback during several poster viewing sessions.

Abstract Submission Deadline: June 12, 2023

Guidelines:

- 1) Abstracts should be written concisely and provide a response for each element of the scoring rubric.
- 2) Abstracts must be submitted by 12:00 pm on June 12, 2023, using the online submission form
NOTE: Submission form fields reflect the scoring rubric to be used by peer reviewers
- 2) Abstracts should be prepared for blind peer review by removing all identifying information (names, affiliations) from the body of the abstract
- 3) Names, credentials, organization/institution affiliations must be provided for all authors in the demographic section of the online form. One primary author should be identified along with all additional authors. The primary author submits the abstract with the full consent of all co-authors. The primary author will be the contact person for all correspondence and the one invited to present at the event.

The Peer Review Team will be reviewing and evaluating each abstract for relevant content support by evidence-based practice and/or guidelines, and quality of writing in expressing key ideas. Abstracts that promote products or services will not be considered.

Abstracts accepted for poster presentation: the primary author must participate at a minimum; co-authors are encouraged to attend. Those authors in attendance must be available during poster display hours, register for the full convention and be responsible for their own hotel, travel and related expenses.

Primary Authors will be notified by July 7, 2023 if their abstract has been accepted for poster presentation. All decisions on abstract acceptance are final.

If an abstract is selected the author(s) must do the following:

- Register for the Convention

- Submit a completed Financial Relationship Reporting Form by July 17, 2023 – each author must complete a form
- Brief outline of the content to be covered and at least 2 fully cited, relevant references by July 17, 2023

For a sample evaluation tool, please see page 2 of this PDF.

To apply, please fill out the web form at: <https://nebraskanurses.org/23-neac-poster-abstracts/>

If you have any questions, please contact Sara Fry at sara@midwestnurses.org

ABSTRACT RATING/REVIEW CRITERIA EVALUATION TOOL

ABSTRACT NUMBER:

LEGEND: 3 = Clearly Articulated and Developed
 2 = Fairly Well Articulated, but Not Fully Developed
 1 = Not Present OR Poorly stated

SELECT ONE:

- Qualitative Research
- Quantitative Research
- Evidence-Based Practice/Quality Improvement

Presentation Title:	3	2	1
Clear research or PICOT question
Background & Significance (describe the knowledge base presenter is building on, and the importance of the study purpose/aims)
Design (state type of study)
Setting
Sample
Methods (method of data collection and method of data analysis)
Results
Implications for practice (describe the meaning of findings, and practice implications/application; and implications for future research)

Total Score _____ out of 24

Reviewer Comments:

Reviewer Name:

Date: